Awards and more at Winter Institute

Of course Winter Institute is the time for presenting the awards for the News, Editorial & Journalism Contest, but there's a lot more. Among the events this year:

- Annual business meeting of NCPA and NCPS to elect officers and board members.
- Presentation of the NCPA North Carolinian of the Year Award.
- Naming of the Hugh Morton Photographers of the Year.
- Presentation of the first-ever Dave Jones Award.
- Honoring the winner of the William Lassiter First Amendment Award.

Plus, this is a great opportunity to soak up the atmosphere of the UNC-CH basketball program as we'll be presenting awards on the floor of the Dean Dome! There will be some surprises as well to get everyone in the spirit, so keep your eye on our Web site and the e-press for details.

Register early, save some money

Being early does have its advantages. Registrations received on or before March 8 will cost $25 per person. After that date the price goes up to $30 per person.

Pay by check or Credit Card

To pay by credit card, go to www.ncpress.com for a link to the online registration. Checks should be payable to North Carolina Press Association. Remember: Payment must accompany registration.

Refund policy

Refunds of pre-paid conference fees, less a $25 processing fee, will be made for cancellations received at NCPA headquarters on or before March 12. NO REFUNDS ARE POSSIBLE AFTER THAT DATE, but you may send a substitute person. You will still be responsible for paying for no shows — NO EXCEPTIONS.

Staying in Chapel Hill?

This year there is no official hotel for the Winter Institute. If you are thinking about an overnight stay for the Institute, you may want to check out the visitors bureau hotel finder at www.visitchapelhill.org/lodging/list/c/hotels-motels/.

Parking for Winter Institute

Before 5 p.m. visitor parking is available at the Ramshead Center on Ridge Road behind Kenan Stadium. (Skipper Bowles Drive becomes Ridge Road north of Manning Drive.) The Dogwood lot near the medical center will also be open. Parking will be available in lots closer to the Dome after 5 p.m.
