

LANGUAGE ARTS • PREPARATION, ASSISTANCE and REFLECTION

DIRECTIONS: Before reading a newspaper story, tell what you know about the topic. In the form of questions, tell what you expect to learn. Then while reading, write down what you learned. Think more about what you would like to know and where you can find the information. Conduct research to answer key questions. Use additional paper if necessary.

